

Calcom Tech Expo 2007

Update and Summary...

Thank You for visiting us at the Calcom Tech Expo 2007!

May 2nd-3rd, 2007 - Longview attended California Communications Association (CalCom), a statewide non-profit trade association comprised of all of the incumbent local exchange carriers (ILECs) providing telecommunications services within California. We had the opportunity to talk to many customers, prospects, and potential partners. We look forward to attending Calcom next year.
